

ARCHITECTURAL DIGEST

THE INTERNATIONAL DESIGN AUTHORITY

APRIL 2011

THE POWER OF PLACE

8 Extraordinary
Homes

PLUS:

What's New in Rome
The Hybrid to Drive Now
AD Visits Vidal Sassoon

$5.99US $6.99FOR

1

2

3

5

4

1 A warm palette of orange and cream softens the striking animal print of Carini Lang's Zebra rug. Handwoven in pure silk, it comes in standard and custom sizes. From $6,210 for a 6' x 9' rug; carinilang.com, 646-613-0497

2 Lladro's Guardian Lion (shown) and Lioness figurines re-create the mythical statues of Imperial China in the company's signature handcrafted porcelain. Available in blue, red, or black, they measure 27.5" h. $25,000 each; lladro.com, 866-552-3767

3 Billy Cotton for the Table, a new collection by the industrial designer, includes this sleek, straightforward stoneware. It comes in four colors (including taxicab-yellow, not shown) and can be mixed and matched to suit any occasion. $10-$20 per piece at Bergdorf Goodman; 212-872-8975

4 Based on Ottoman decorative motifs, Sheherazade's Iznik porcelain vases feature stylized images of buds, blooms, and branches painted in traditional color combinations. The largest, far left, stands 10" h. $95-$155 each; sheherazadenyc.com, 212-539-1771

5 Designed by architect Andre Kikoski, Ligne Roset's Guggen dining chair pairs an upholstered pivoting seat with a cross-shaped base of polished steel. It is available in standard fabrics or c.o.m. From $1,170; ligne-roset-usa.com, 800-297-6738 →