

Wool embroidery gives a satiny throw a smoking jacket vibe. "City Sophisticate" $39.99 MERVYNS (800) 637-8967 FOR STORES

Toss this over Granny's rocker and you're ready for a party. Roberta Schilling silk blend with feathers "Guinome" $250 MIGNONE INTERIORS (888) 449-4491

Shimmery faux foxtail brings a hint of seduction to whatever it graces. Marlo Lorenz "Glamour" $60 THRO.COM FOR STORES

Make the most of these long, hand-knotted tassels by draping over a table. Ankasa silk "Chelsea" $265 LINEN COAST (239) 594-0214

Two-toned silk with cotton batting looks just as good folded up as it does spread out. Reversible "Granny Knot" $495 MICHELE VARIAN (212) 343-0033

It's got sequins!

This traditional Moroccan wedding cape of hand-spun wool is amazing as a bedspread. Cotton and wool FROM $395 SHEHERAZADE (212) 539-1771

Folded at the end of a modern chaise, this would add a layer of luxe intricacy. Embroidered silk brocade with velvet trim $845 DRANSFIELD & ROSS (212) 741-7278 FOR STORES

Irresistibly touchable faux-fox fur, backed in doe suede—and machine-washable! $199 FABULOUSFURS.COM

KEEPING THEM GORGEOUS

If you stain cashmere or silk, don't rub with water, which will compound the problem. Visit the dry cleaner.

To remove dust or pet hair from a wool or cashmere throw, pop it in the dryer for 15 minutes (no heat).

Be sure stored throws can breathe; plastic enclosures can cause fibers to sweat, which leads to staining. An old, well-washed cotton pillowcase is a good storage sack.

MARKET EDITOR: MONIKA BIEGLER