

1 Material World

John Robshaw's latest collection of hand-blocked linen-cotton prints takes its cue from India and the Far East, where the designer finds inspiration for such fabrics as the batiklike Hibiscus print and the Gent's Stripe in indigo. They cost $85 per yard. Call 212-594-6006; johnrobshaw.com.

2 Going Dotty

When venerable French porcelainmaker Gien teams up with cutting-edge tastemaker Andrée Putman, the result is the Polka tea set. In a departure from her sophisticated monochromatic interiors, Putman pairs curvy shapes with colorful dots and whimsical abstract florals. The teapot is $139, and the sugar bowl and creamer are $72 each at the Conran Shop. Call 866-755-9079; conran.com.

3 Orange Crush

The best way to brighten up traveling amid a sea of black and gray luggage? Smythson of Bond Street's Tangerine Collection accessories. The notebook, $100, passport cover, $155, and luggage tag, $65, are bound in vibrant pigskin—perfect for flashing at airports from Heathrow to O'Hare and everywhere in between. Call 866-769-8476; smythson.com.

4 Color Craze

The traditional octagonal shape of the Moroccan side table goes mod with the infusion of colorful pastels. Sheherazade's update is painted lilac and embellished with hand-painted lavender paisley motifs. It measures 18" high and 18" in diameter, and costs $250 at the New York shop. Call 212-539-1771; sheherazadenyc.com.

