

While it's no secret that New York City offers countless types of cuisines from around the world, the cultural melting pot also boasts dozens of boutiques dedicated to international designers. Here, we present a sampling of exotic goods from countries near and far.

global markets

Tall bottles—Morocco
Red glass and lead perfume bottles,
about $45/ea. Sheherazade,
121 Orchard St., 539-1771.

Chest—Morocco

Brown Touareg leather jewelry box with engraved metal trim and clasp, about $195. Sheherazade.

For further details on these and other shopping options, turn to "Shops & Services" (p. 40).