

QUEST * QUEST * QUEST * QUEST * QUEST * QUEST * Q

Sheherazade

has recently opened a location in SoHo. The space holds de Vera's expanded collection of exquisite jewelry, Italian glass, metal arts, Japanese lacquerware, Mughal ivory carvings, Tibetan deities, and personal handmade artifacts often centuries old and one of a kind.

DISTANT ORIGIN

153 Mercer Street
212.941.0024 / distantorigin.com

This shop offers a well-edited selection of gifts and home furnishings from around the world, as well as design services. They also carry Fortuny silk lamps, which use a concave surface to radiate light through decorated silk covers.

MOSS

146 Greene Street
212.204.7100 / mossonline.com

Murray Moss's design mecca is intentionally laid out to look and feel like a museum. Lighting, watches, books, and tableware are displayed behind glass or raised onto platforms. Moss also has a registry and a design section for large-scale projects.

NATUZZI

101 Greene Street
212.334.4335 / us.natuzzi.com

The Natuzzi Group's SoHo store brings Italy's largest furniture manufacturer to New York. Natuzzi prides itself on quality, which is evident in the store's large selection of furniture. There is something for everyone in the various styles of furniture that combine function and comfort.

SHEHERAZADE

121 Orchard Street
212.539.1771 / sheherazadenyc.com

When you step into Sheherazade, the luxurious furniture, lavish caftans, and jeweled objets d'art create the feeling you've entered a sultan's palace. The store, known for its authentic Middle Eastern and North African products, represents typical Islamic Art at its best.

Treillage home and garden design store