

INDEX CHECKLIST

VOGUE
May 2005

34

Lucite stag head

"It's the transparency that makes it so stylish," says J. Mendel PR director Lauren Davis. Distant Origin mounted stag light, $6,000. 153 Mercer Street, NYC; (212) 941-0024. Trunk T-shirt. J. Mendel skirt. Subversive Jewelry by Justin Giunta coral necklace.

37 Sheherazade cushions

These luxe pillows, made from vintage Moroccan caftans, add a touch of global chic to any room in your home. $175 per cushion. Sheherazade, NYC; (212) 539-1771.

39 Vintage lighting

Model Karen Elson illuminates her apartment with refurbished antique lamps from Secondhand Rose. Nineteenth-century pierced-brass lamp with amber-bead fringe, $2,200. www.secondhandrose.com.

41 Murano-glass jam jars

Keep your fresh-fruit preserves in Buccellati's pretty fruit pots ($3,300 each). (800) 223-7885.

35 Maison Ramsay table

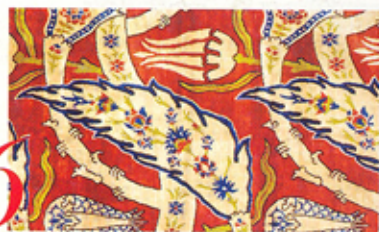

The great outdoors meets French Art Deco in this 1950s bronze-antler-and-glass-top table ($9,500). Pascal Boyer Gallery, NYC; (212) 242-5594.

36

Veedon Fleece carpet

The design of the silk Arabesque (about $121 per square foot) is taken from a robe at Istanbul's Topkapi Museum. www.veedonfleece.com.

38

Venetian mirrors

Not one or two but three crowned, etched, and beautifully beveled mirrors hang in contemporary-design icon Philippe Starck's Paris penthouse. Buy your own from a selection at www.1stdibs.com.

40

Dramatic door

At his home in Paris, designer Christian Lacroix chose bold sunflower yellow to welcome visitors to his study door. Janovic Plaza has more than 7,000 shades of architectural paint from 20 brands. www.janovic.com.

42

T. Anthony luggage

Store all your clutter in a stack of T. Anthony's royal-purple hard suitcases (from $650 to $750). www.tanthony.com.

All prices approximate. Photo credits, details, more stores, see In This Issue.